- Former Jacksonville Jaguar Tony Boselli signed on as the master of ceremonies for the 2010 Ted Hires Legacy Dinner to be Justice Coalition. The event is 6 p.m. Oct. 21 at the Morocco Shrine Center. For reservations, visit www.justicecoalition.com
- Suggested headline for the city budget story: "This too shall pass."

- The annual Charity Golf Tournament between the Meninak Club of Jacksonville and the Rotary Club of Jacksonville will be at Timuquana Country Club. It starts with a joint lunch meeting, featuring guest speaker Ch. 12 Sports Director Dan Hicken.
- Jacksonville Beach author Ron Whittington will sign copies of his fiction thriller "Second Strike" from 5-9 p.m. Oct. 6 at Ch. 12 Uptown Café during the Downtown First Wednesday Art Walk. The book is a fictional account of a terrorist attack aimed at Jacksonville during the Florida-Georgia game that occurs in the days after 9/11.
- Sylvester Black, who serves part-time with the Public Defender's Office, participated in a graduation ceremony at Jacksonville Rescue Mission marking his completion of the yearlong LifeBuilders Recovery Program. At the Public Defender's Office, Black works with select juvenile clients in need of a supportive adult to spend time with them in court proceedings and attorney meetings outside of those areas. Black, 51, spent 27 years of his life behind bars on various convictions. "Sylvester Black fills a very need in lives of our young clients," said Public Defender Matt Shirk.
